BMHS Pep Group Adds Drill Team

Formation of a 48-member drill team at Bishop Montgomery High School has been completed for the fall semester. The girls, led by Terry Bialecki, Mary Lou Rehuss, and Julie Wagner, will march during halftime ceremonies at Montgomery football games.

Chairmen Set Mothers' March

Two local women have been appointed chairmen of the Torrance and Gardena Mothers' March on Birth Defects, climax of the January 1966 March of Dimes campaign. Mrs. William Brooks, 24463 Winlock Drive, will lead the local marching mothers who will call at homes Jan. 23 for contributions to support the March of Dimes' fight against birth defects.

Exams Set For Deputy Marshals

Examinations for young men interested in a career as deputy marshals in Los Angeles County will be given through Nov. 26 at the County Hall of Administration, 222 N. Grand Ave., Los Angeles. Lt. Hubert Goyen, commander of the Torrance division of the County Marshal's Office, said salaries range from $624 to $735 per month. The position provides for paid vacations and sick leave. Promotion in the marshal's office are based on competitive civil service examinations. The department encourages its members to continue their education through several programs. Men between the ages of 21 and 31 are eligible. Detailed information and applications may be obtained by calling Lt. Goyen in the Torrance office, 3231 Torrance Blvd., or form the office in the County Courthouse, 110 N. Grand Ave., Los Angeles.

Art Grant Awarded to NHS Senior

North High senior Mike Scholberg has enrolled in a Saturday art class at the Los Angeles Art Center. Scholberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Scholberg of 2120 W. 18th St., was selected by the North High art department faculty to attend the center on a special scholarship. The Saxon senior has won awards at an exhibit at Whittier's Pioneer High School and in the Bullocks Downtown art exhibition. He plans to attend El Camino College and eventually hopes to become an aeronautical engineer. Musician Seaman Appren. Clarence B. Herrbach, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike L. Herrbach of 1858 E. 213th St., is attending the Naval School of Music at Little Creek Naval Amphibious Base, Norfolk, Va.
